Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Good Christian friends, rejoice with heart and soul and voice!

We gather on this night of the dear Savior's birth, in the name of the holy Trinity, one God, maker of all things, ✠ Our Lord Immanuel, giver of life.

All: Amen.

Pastor: Long lay the world in sin and ever pining. Naming our part in the world's brokenness, we confess our sin and sorrow. Silence for reflection.

Pastor: Son of God, love's pure light, forgive us for the things we have done: the grudges we have held, the gifts we have hoarded, the harsh words we have spoken, the resources we have wasted, the divisions we have hardened.

All: O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray; cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.

Pastor: Son of God, love's pure light, forgive us for the things we have left undone: the needs we have turned away from, the justice we have failed to speak out for, the forgiveness we have refused to extend, the prayer we have neglected to offer, the opportunities to show love we have missed.

All: O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray; cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.

Pastor: Hark the herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn king; peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled." Your sins are forgiven, you are reconciled with God. Christ was born for this!

All: Amen.

Children are invited to bring their ribbon wands and join Pastor Sigrid in the back of the sanctuary to process in as we sing the Gathering Hymn.

Greeting and Prayer of the Day

Pastor: The grace of our Savior Jesus Christ, Word made flesh, born of Mary, be with you all. All: And also with you.

Pastor: Almighty God, you made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that here on earth we may walk in the light of Jesus' presence and in the last day wake to the brightness of his glory; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

All: Amen.

Please be seated.

“Jesus Christ is Born Today”

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 9:2-7

²The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.

³You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.

⁴For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.

⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors
and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

⁶For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;

authority rests upon his shoulders;
 and he is named
 Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
⁷His authority shall grow continually,
 and there shall be endless peace
 for the throne of David and his kingdom.
 He will establish and uphold it
 with justice and with righteousness
 from this time onward and forevermore.
 The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

¹In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Scripture Reading: Luke 2:8-14

⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

Children are invited to jingle the bells on their wands as we sing the word “Gloria.”

Carol “Angels We Have Heard on High” Verses 1 and 2

Scripture Reading: Luke 2:15-20

¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Nicene Creed

All: We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Prayer

Assisting Minister: Let us pray. Our Lord Immanuel, receive and bless the gifts we have offered, signs of your goodness. As you gather us here at this table of celebration, we thank you for the wonders of your love, given for us in the bread and wine, your body and blood. Nourish us with this meal of grace, that our lives might shine with your everlasting light. All: Amen.

Dialog

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

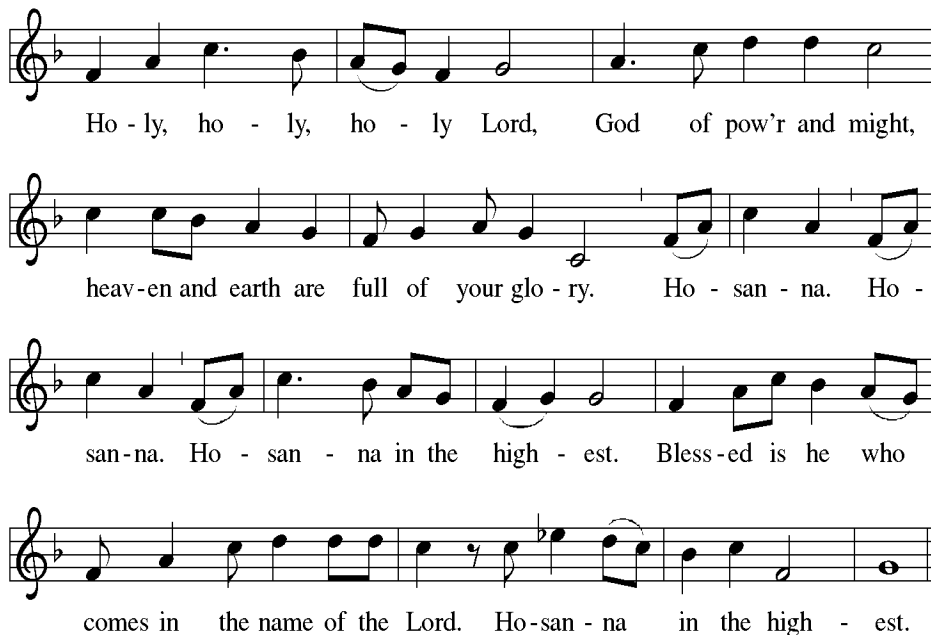

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Preface

Pastor: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places...we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

Pastor: Holy God, angels from the realms of glory once sang creation's story as you brought life into being. Prophets rang out your word when from sin grew injustice, and people turned from you. In the fullness of time, choirs of angels sang in exultation as Jesus, the highest, most holy, light of light eternal, Son of the Father, now in flesh appearing, was born of Mary. Mild, he lay his glory by, born that we no more may die, but may live as your daughters and sons. In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me. With all creation, we await the days, by prophets seen of old, when with the ever-circling years shall come the time foretold, when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling and all the world give back the song which now the angels sing.

Send now your Holy Spirit upon us. Come to us, abide with us.

Gladden our hearts with tidings of comfort and joy as we share this holy meal. All praise and glory to you, eternal God, Word made flesh, lifegiving Spirit, one God, now and forever. All: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Pastor: Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
